

ADVOCATES FOR URBAN AGRICULTURE

SPRING MEETING & POTLUCK

Wednesday, March 30

5:30-8:00 PM

Jensen Room

Garfield Park Conservatory

300 N. Central Park Ave.

5:30-6:00 Potluck

Bring your own silverware & a dish according to your last name: A-F Entrée, G-P Salad, Q-Z Dessert

5:45-6:10 AUA Community Slideshow

Everyone will have a chance to talk (for 30 seconds) about their urban rooftop, garden, or farm. Please send one photo of your cultivated land to helphand@gmail.com by Monday, March 28. Include a sentence that states "I support urban agriculture in Chicago because..." and "AUA Slideshow" in the title of your email. Your photos and statements will be used in a Mayoral brief to capture the many faces and values of urban agriculture in Chicago.

6:10-7:00 Speaker Panel on Food Security

We have invited a handful of creative and critical thinkers to talk about their ideas on how urban agriculture can address food security issues in Chicago.

7:00-8:00 Open Discussion on Chicago's Proposed Zoning Code Changes

Advocacy Committee Co-Chairs will give an overview of the proposed zoning code changes and invite your thoughts, concerns, and questions.
